

Join us in ENDING THE GAME!
www.EndingTheGame.com

CURRICULUM GOALS:

- Help victims identify and understand their victimization
- Decrease feelings of attachment to a trafficker and/or the trafficking lifestyle
- Increase ability to act independently of negative influences and coercion
- Motivate victims to create or enhance their identity outside of "the life"
- Increase hope for a future outside of "the life"

"The women are relating to the material and to my surprise are really being transparent and opening up. Thank you for the training and for developing" this program. I already see a change starting in some of them. It's a precious gift to see."

Marguerite H.
ETG Facilitator, Stockton, CA

CURRICULUM ACCOMPLISHMENTS:

- Over 500 trained ETG Facilitators in 23 states reaching hundreds of survivors annually
- 5 years of university-driven assessment and research (articles forthcoming)
- Overwhelming positive qualitative and promising* quantitative findings showing success in our 5 target goals
- Meaningful, compensated employment opportunities for 22 survivors (and counting!)
- Featured on CNN and HLN's Inside with Chris Cuomo "Anyone's Daughter"

ENDING THE GAME (ETG)

A survivor-written, 10-session intervention curriculum for victims of commercial sexual exploitation. ETG empowers victims to understand and overcome the commonly-used, yet seldom-explained tactics of psychological coercion that lead to and perpetuate commercial sexual exploitation.